

Presenting and Sponsoring Organizations

The World Canals Conference is presented under the auspices of Inland Waterways International. It brings canal and waterway enthusiasts, professionals and scholars from around the world, together to learn about a variety of topics related to canals, including the protection of historic canals or features, revitalization of canal systems, harbor sites, canal trails and amenities; the presentation or interpretation of canals and corridors—their history and various elements; canals as a means to promote tourism, spur economic development and urban renewal and environmental sustainability. <http://www.inlandwaterwaysinternational.org/>

WCC 2010 is sponsored by the New York State Canal Corporation, the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor, the Canal Society of New York State, Monroe County, City of Rochester, Bergmann Associates, PC, and PIANC-USA. Additional sponsorship opportunities are available.

The Canal Society of New York State is a non-profit organization that brings together canal enthusiasts from across New York to protect historic canal sites and features, support the revitalization of canals and the development of canal ports, recreational facilities, canal trails and other related amenities, and present and interpret canal history. <http://www.canalsnys.org/>

The New York State Canal Corporation, a subsidiary of the New York State Thruway Authority, is the proud steward of this great, historic 524-mile waterway, a legacy that was born more than 175 years ago. We are committed to preserving the legacy of this marvelous waterway and the towpaths that now make up a portion of the Canalway Trail, a multi-use recreational network of trails. <http://www.nyscanals.gov/>

The Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor Commission and staff, in partnership with the National Park Service, collaborate with communities and organizations to preserve and interpret our heritage, invite visitors to explore what makes us unique, and ensure a vibrant future for the 2.7 million New Yorkers who call the Erie Canalway home.
